JOSE MOURINHO

Good evening and welcome back.

Today's game marks the start of a busy and exciting period for us. Following this afternoon, we have matches home and abroad in three different competitions against Norwich, Burnley and RB Leipzig, all falling within seven days of each other. It could prove a defining week in this season for us and we know you will be with us every step of the way. These are the times that we, as professional football players and coaches, live for.

There is still much for us to play for this season and you can be assured we will be battling on all fronts. We continue to fight with a number of teams to achieve a Premier League top four finish, while we are also in the last 16 of the FA Cup and Champions League, despite now having to overturn a home leg defeat against Leipzig next month if we are to stay alive in the latter competition. With the spirit and mentality this group of players possesses, I can guarantee the tie is far from over.

The boys gave everything for the shirt, the Club and you in our last game against Chelsea at Stamford Bridge, so I cannot fault them despite not getting the result we wanted.

We must continue to show that hunger and desire; traits which have been key to our ascension in the league table since November and have given us a fighting chance of being able to play Champions League football again next season.

"IT COULD PROVE A DEFINING WEEK IN THIS SEASON FOR US AND WE KNOW YOU WILL BE WITH US EVERY STEP OF THE WAY"

This afternoon sees us face another side who have aspirations of playing in Europe's elite competition next season as we welcome Wolverhampton Wanderers. Nuno Espirito Santo's side have shown their quality once again this season and we understand the challenging job ahead of us today. It is a task we will take on with all our efforts in order to get the win we desire.

Your support in our last game here against Leipzig was special and it really does make a difference when you get behind the guys, so I ask you to give it your all again today.

I hope you enjoy your evening with us.

CELEBRATING 'ACCESS FOR ALL'

LEVEL PLAYING FIELD WEEKS OF ACTION 2020

We are pleased to support Level Playing Field's Weeks of Action 2020, which takes place from 29 February to 15 March. The annual initiative, now in its 16th year, celebrates access and inclusion for disabled sports fans across England and Wales.

Level Playing Field is a campaigning and advisory organisation working on behalf of all disabled supporters to share good practice, raise awareness and promote improved access to sports stadia for disabled fans who aspire to attend live sporting events.

With equality and inclusion at the heart of everything we do as a Club, Weeks of Action provides an opportunity to highlight the ongoing work we do to support our disabled fans and those living with disabilities in the local community.

Our stadium is fully compliant with the Accessible Stadia Guide and exceeds standards in many areas. For example, in addition to dedicated accessible entrances, the stadium has accessible seating and wheelchair spaces in all stands, including our single tier South Stand. It also includes three Changing Places facilities for fans with more complex needs, which have more space and equipment than standard accessible toilets.

Located in the stadium's North Stand, our Sensory Suite offers a comfortable and calming environment for supporters on the autistic spectrum or with sensory impairment conditions to watch matches. The room is complete with a tactile wall, a bubble tube and several other pieces of sensory equipment.

The Club also continues to work closely with SpursAbility, our Disabled Supporters' Association which represents and promotes the views of disabled fans, to ensure they have a positive experience at home and away matches.

Jo McNicol, SpursAbility Chairperson, said: "The stadium's access facilities are amazing because they enable me and other disabled supporters to enjoy the full matchday experience, just as any other fan would.

"The Club has maintained a consistent dialogue with SpursAbility right from when these facilities were first being designed, which shows how much it cares about meeting the needs of all fans."

Meanwhile, Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, the Club's charitable arm, runs a range of programmes that are designed to help people with physical and learning disabilities living in the local area gain regular access to sport and physical activity.

As part of our support for Weeks of Action 2020, one lucky One Hotspur Member will get the opportunity to join the audio-descriptive commentary team for today's game, who provide match commentary for our visually impaired fans.

To find out more about how you can get involved in this year's Weeks of Action, please visit www.levelplayingfield.org.uk or @lpftweets.

Continuing our Q&A feature for this season – using the year of the Club's formation as inspiration – as we ask our players to choose 18 lifestyle questions from a selection of 82. This afternoon, right-back Serge Aurier gives us his answers...

1. You are cooking dinner – what is your signature dish?
Serge: "African food. I cook something that I learned with my mum – it's like banana plantain with Attieke."

2. Are you good at another sport?
Serge: "Yes – when I go on holiday I play tennis. I'm not too bad!"

3. Tell us a secret…
Serge: "When I was young I didn't want to play right-back. I played football for fun as a midfielder. I started to play right-back at 17 or 18 – when my manager put me there I cried because I didn't want to do it."

4. How do you like your eggs?
Serge: "I just like an omelette."

5. What is your most used WhatsApp group?
Serge: "My friends' group. We talk about everything – football matches, life, everything. It's a funny group."

6. What is the best advice you've been given?
Serge: "My first coach when I was young, Olivier Bijotat, explained to me how real life works. When I was young I was carefree but he showed me the right way to approach life and taught me to believe in my dreams."

7. When was the last time you cried?
Serge: "Last year in a very bad moment for me when I lost my dad. I cried inside but you never saw my face with tears on the outside."

8. Who was your childhood crush?
Serge: "When I was young I liked my English professor. I went to school only to see her!"

9. What is the most important lesson that life has taught you?
Serge: "That we are nothing in this world. Once, I went to the orphanage to see the kids and that moment was a lesson because they have nothing, they don't have parents or family. After that I appreciated reality. We need to understand that we have everything – those young children had nothing. I realised so many things in that moment."

10. Facial hair – yes or no?
Serge: "Yes."

11. Which superhero do you wish actually existed?
Serge: "Monkey D Luffy."

12. What is your favourite smell?
Serge: "The smell of vanilla."

13. What is your favourite journey?
Serge: "I like to go to Ivory Coast because when I go there, I feel like I'm at home."

14. What was the last film you watched?
Serge: "Viking."

15. Which language would you like to speak?
Serge: "Spanish."

16. Do you do the washing up?
Serge: "I do it sometimes. Just quickly though – a quick skim over the plates!"

17. What is your favourite sandwich?
Serge: "Egg mayonnaise."

18. What is the best goal ever?
Serge: "Real Madrid against Deportivo La Coruna in 2010, Guti's assist for Karim Benzema. Guti was facing the goalkeeper, Benzema was coming from quite far back, Guti played a back-heel and Benzema scored. This goal for me was amazing because it was more Guti than Benzema. I think he had eyes in the back of his head. Nobody expected him to pass the ball back because he was face-to-face with the goalkeeper. It's a crazy goal – I love it!"

Steven Bergwijn

Steven Bergwijn was given quite the welcome on his first day at Hotspur Way back in January.

Having completed his move from PSV Eindhoven during the winter transfer window, when the winger walked into the first team dressing room for the first time at our Enfield training centre, his new team-mates were waiting for him with a special surprise.

Of course, Steven was well known to the squad before his arrival as a fair few of them had come up against him when his former side PSV faced us in the Champions League at Wembley in November 2018 – particularly Serge Aurier, who lined up opposite the winger at right back in the game with the task of keeping him at bay down our right-hand side.

And there was one moment during the game which wasn't easily forgotten by the Ivorian and winger Lucas Moura, who had also played on the right flank in that game, as the pair made our new signing relive a certain nutmeg from that match as part of his welcome to the Club.

"IT WAS THE PERFECT DEBUT I THINK, IN THE BEGINNING THOUGH, THE MATCH WAS TOUGH FOR ME. IN THE FIRST TEN OR 15 MINUTES IT WAS HARD BECAUSE OF THE INTENSITY"

"When I came into the changing room on my first day here, Serge Aurier and Lucas Moura were there," our number 23 explained. "I remembered that I had played against Spurs at Wembley last season and in that game, Serge gave me a nutmeg and so that was the first thing I saw when I went into the dressing room on my first day.

"They had a clip of that moment playing on a screen when I went in. Everyone was smiling and laughing about it."

The nutmeg at Wembley may have been a moment the Dutch international hoped had been quickly forgotten by Serge but, in many ways, Steven feels that jovial welcome has played a big part in his bright start to life as a Spur. Add to it the familiarity of other Dutch speakers already in the squad, the winger believes his team-mates must be given credit for his early strong form, especially after he enjoyed a 'perfect debut' back in February when he fired home with a sublime volley in the 2-0 triumph over Manchester City.

"Michel Vorm, Jan Vertonghen and Toby Alderweireld speak Dutch as well, so it's been easier for me," he continued as he discussed settling in at the Club. "My English could be better, but I can understand everything, and I can speak it, so it helps of course. It's a good group.

"The welcome that I got from my team-mates helped me a lot (ahead of Manchester City)", he said before he paused, smiled, and looked up briefly as he relived that emotional first strike in his mind. "It was the perfect debut. I think, in the beginning though, the match was tough for me. In the first ten or 15 minutes it was hard because of the intensity. The whole game for me was hard. You saw that I had to be substituted late on with cramp. But, of course, it was amazing to play and to score against City. Fantastic!"

The Premier League's intensity is something that England's top flight is famed for. It is one of the reasons why so many aspiring footballers dream of taking on the challenge that it serves. Steven was no different.

On his first day here, the 22-year-old told us exactly that and now, while he found the first few brief steps in the competition tough against City as he got to grips with the demands of the division, the Dutchman now seems right up to speed, loving his new city and enjoying every minute of playing in this world-renowned league.

"IN MY OPINION, IN HOLLAND YOU HAVE A FEW BIG GAMES BUT HERE, MY FEELING IS THAT EVERY GAME IS BIG"

Steven Bergwijn

"I think things move fast in football. You train hard every day for each game, so you get used to the intensity," he explained. "I've enjoyed every game so far. It's been a quick few weeks, but I feel happy here.

"I love everything in London. I came a few years ago so I know about it. It's become my home very quickly. There are great restaurants, you can shop, there's everything that you would want here. It's like Amsterdam but much bigger.

"I think everyone knows that Spurs is a big club. When I came here and saw the facilities, I thought it was amazing. The facilities are amazing. If you see the difference between this and what we have in Holland, it's unbelievable. The stadium as well, it's so big.

"In my opinion, in Holland you have a few big games but here, my feeling is that every game is big. The stadiums, the fans being close to the field, the old stadiums as well, the away games, the atmospheres at the grounds – it all makes it so exciting.

"The stadiums are always full and the atmospheres have been amazing. When you are warming up, you look around and see it all but after that you quickly get used to that. I've played almost every game so far as well which is a good thing for me."

And with the recent disappointing news that Heung-Min Son is set to miss a number of weeks after he fractured his arm in our 3-2 win over Aston Villa, joining fellow forward Harry Kane on the sidelines, it looks like Steven will be continue to play an important role in our attack.

But, with the former PSV man loving every moment on the pitch, the thought of any added pressure being on his shoulders to deliver for the team hasn't even crossed his mind.

He just wants to do as much as he can to help the team, in whatever way is needed and that continues today as we welcome Wolves to Tottenham Hotspur Stadium for the first time. A side Steven admits, he is intrigued to take on.

"I don't feel like there is pressure on me but just that somebody has to score the goals and it doesn't matter who," he explained. "We have to do it as a team, that is important. Of course, I want to score every game but if that is not possible, that's fine. You just have to help the team in any way you can. Play well, keep the ball, help others score.

"And I spoke to Michel Vorm about Wolves. He said that he thinks that they are one of the toughest teams in the league – they have a good team so I can't wait to take them on and see how good they are. I know if we play well though, we can get the win.

"We have a good team, so I have a good feeling. At home as well, we have to do our thing with the help of the fans."

SCENE SETTER

Previewing this afternoon's Premier League meeting with Wolverhampton Wanderers, looking at the form guide, previous encounters and a whole host of vital statistics…

DID YOU KNOW?

Coming into this weekend's fixtures, only Liverpool (45) and Man City (32) have won more points than us (26) since Jose Mourinho took over as Head Coach.

2018
We stormed into a 3-0 lead at Molineux through Lamela, Lucas and Kane, Wolves hit back with penalties from Neves and Jimenez, but we held on to win.
2019
Late drama earlier this season in the Midlands as Vertonghen's stoppage time goal gave us the win, after Lucas and Traore had scored for either side.
2010
A late turnaround at the Lane. Fletcher gave Wolves the lead, van der Vaart levelled from the spot but two goals in the last three minutes from Pavlyuchenko and Hutton won it for us.
2004
We completed the double over Wolves with a 2-0 win at Molineux in 2003/04, a goal either side of half-time from Keane and Defoe doing the damage.
2003
A convincing win in our first-ever PL meeting. Robbie Keane scored a hat-trick, Kanoute and Dalmat also on target as Ince and Rae netted for Wolves in a 5-2 win.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

v Wolves

Today we are meeting Wolves for just the 12th time in the Premier League, let's take a look back at five of those encounters.

UPPER HAND

We have lost just one of the last seven league games with Wolves (W4 D2), that came in this fixture last season at Wembley.

LONDON CALLING

Since their 2018 promotion, Wolves are unbeaten in each of their eight Premier League games in London, winning three and drawing five.

GOALS GALORE

The last seven meetings between the two sides in all competitions have seen 26 goals scored (15 Spurs, 11 Wolves), an average of 3.7 per game.

HEAD TO HEAD

TEAM FORM

Spurs:	Wolves:
L W W W D	W D D L W

Our run of three straight league wins came to an end last weekend as we went down 2-1 at Chelsea, but we are looking to record three consecutive home wins at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium today for the first time since our first three games here in April. We have also won three of our last four Sunday matches in the Premier League.

Nuno Espirito Santo's side go into today's game two places but just one point behind us in the table in eighth position. They have lost only one of their last six in the division since losing 2-1 at Liverpool and have kept three consecutive clean sheets as well. Wolves have won more points from losing positions (18) than any other team in the PL this season.

A Mexico international with 82 caps, 23 goals and an Olympic gold medal to his name, Raul Jimenez has successfully transferred his free-scoring form into Premier League football, hitting 38 goals in 85 games for Wolves since his 2018 arrival. The forward started out in Mexico with Club America, twice winning the national title before a move to Europe and Atletico Madrid in 2014. The following year saw the 6ft 2in striker switch to Benfica, where he helped the club win two successive Portuguese league titles and a collection of domestic cups, scoring 31 times. When Wolves came calling, the move saw Jimenez return to the country where he won Olympic gold with Mexico at the 2012 London Games.

TRUE COLOURS

We all have our favourites when it comes to past Spurs kits and, sometimes, they can evoke memories of specific games, moments and the players who wore them. Continuing our series for the 2019/20 season, Billy Shaw chats to our players – past and present – to find out what comes into their minds when they look back at a selection of our shirts from seasons gone by. Today, boyhood Spurs fan and central midfielder Harry Winks is in the hot seat…

SPURS HOME KIT, 2005/06

"Jermain Defoe, definitely!" smiled Winksy as he looked at a photograph of our distinctive home strip from the 2005/06 campaign. "Yes, straight away I think of him because I had this kit as a kid with Defoe 18 on the back and I used to put it on my teddy, who was called Bruno! I can't remember how old I was – still in primary school, obviously."

By his own high standards, the season in question wasn't the most productive for fans' favourite 'JD'. He scored in our first two fixtures of the Premier League campaign wearing this kit – consecutive 2-0 wins away to Portsmouth and at home to Middlesbrough – but despite featuring in 36 of our 38 games, he ended the season with nine goals.

The kit we're talking about here was the final one produced by Kappa and also the last to carry the old Club motif before it was replaced by the current incarnation of the Cockerel in the summer of 2006.

"I'm pretty sure it would have been Defoe's second full season at the Club," added Harry. "I just remember having that shirt at home, although the first Spurs kit I ever had was one of the ones with Holsten on the front, so that would have been before this one."

SPURS AWAY KIT, 2006/07

"This one reminds me of a few players to be fair – Robbie Keane, Ledley King and probably Pascal Chimbonda as well," said Winksy, reminding himself of our light blue away top from 2006/07.

"I think this was from the first year of Puma – they made the famous brown kit that year as well, if my memory serves me correctly.

"Yes, I'd say Pascal playing in defence comes to mind most vividly when I look at this shirt."

Featuring navy blue shorts sandwiched in between the much brighter, almost fluorescent shade of blue on the shirt and socks, this kit was in fact worn by Chimbonda during the official photocall at his unveiling as a Spurs player following his switch from Wigan Athletic in August, 2006.

There, he was pictured with manager Martin Jol, plus Mido, who had returned to the Club on a permanent deal from Roma following the end of his long-term loan spell with us.

All three players named by Harry above ran out in these colours when we went to Manchester United in September, 2006, going down 1-0 thanks to an early Ryan Giggs goal in a match that also represented Chimbonda's competitive Spurs debut.

SPURS THIRD KIT, 2013/14

It's fair to say, we endured mixed fortunes in our third kit during the 2013/14 season!

After a memorable first outing thanks to a last-minute winner from midfielder Paulinho at Cardiff City in September, 2013, the strip was subsequently worn in our 6-0 humbling at Manchester City in the November of that campaign, before reappearing just four nights later as we won 2-0 away to Tromso in the group stage of the Europa League.

A dark navy outfit with lighter blue houndstooth patterns across the top of the shoulders, the kit returned in a tight 1-0 win at Stoke City three games from the end of the season in question – by which time Tim Sherwood had taken over as Head Coach from Andre Villas-Boas – where Danny Rose netted the decisive goal during the first half.

"I was still an Under-18s player when we had this kit," explained Winksy. "I can just envisage Michael Dawson wearing this – even in that City game where we lost heavily. Daws spoke well after the game, showing his qualities as a captain and leader, but you could tell he was gutted – everyone was. For some reason I remember (Alvaro) Negredo scoring in that game for City. Vlad Chiriches also comes to mind when I look at the kits from that season, but probably more so with the white home version. I think that was the first full year we had at the Training Centre after we moved from Chigwell."

"Fulham, of course!" laughed Harry as we arrived at the most recent of the shirts we put in front of him for this feature.

"It has to be! I'll never forget that goal – what a feeling!"

Winksy is of course referring to his stoppage-time winning goal at Fulham in January, 2019, which he netted wearing our away kit from last term – a primarily navy blue shirt with the sleeves and shorts in a slightly more pale shade and the socks lighter still.

How we needed a hero that day!

Missing the injured Harry Kane and with Heung-Min Son away on international duty, we also lost Dele Alli during the course of this Craven Cottage clash, a little while after he'd equalised following Fernando Llorente's first-half own goal.

We seemed to be heading for a frustrating share of the spoils against our relegation-haunted hosts – that was until Winksy popped up in the box with a stooping header from substitute Georges-Kevin Nkoudou's left-wing cross in the final seconds of added time to secure a 2-1 victory and three more important points.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

SIX OF THE BEST...

Steve Perryman is tackled by Wolves pair Mel Eves and Colin Brazier (right) during our game at White Hart Lane in February, 1982, but it was only brief respite for the visitors as we ran out 6-1 winners in this Division One fixture. Ricky Villa scored a hat-trick, with Mark Falco, Garth Crooks and a Glenn Hoddle penalty also on the scoresheet. Kenny Hibbitt replied for Wolves. The match marked the opening of our new West Stand.

Kion Etete...on target from the spot against West Ham

UNDER-18 PREMIER LEAGUE: WEST HAM UNITED 3-1 SPURS

Our Under-18s were made to pay for a series of missed chances as West Ham United snatched all three points in our Under-18 Premier League clash at Little Heath last weekend.

Dominant in a number of areas, we took a deserved lead through Kion Etete's penalty after Max Robson was brought down in the box, but the Hammers levelled with a spot-kick of their own through Veron Parkes when Matthew Craig was pulled up for a challenge on Daniel Chesters in the run-up to half-time.

The hosts then grabbed the upper hand via Ademipo Odubeko in the opening exchanges of the second period.

We continued to create chances but simply couldn't convert any of them and as we chased an equaliser late in the game, substitute Kamarai Swyer made sure of the points for the hosts, firing home for a 3-1 final scoreline.

Spurs: Kurylowicz, Lusala, Cirkin, Matthew Craig (Whittaker 70), Fagan-Walcott (c), Muir, John, Skinner (Pedder 82), Etete, Robson (Santiago 74), Bennett. Substitute (not used): Lo-Tutala.

MATT PINPOINTS REASON FOR DEFEAT

Under-18s Coach Matt Taylor said our youngsters were not ruthless enough in either penalty box in last week's defeat at West Ham.

"Our control of the game was good for the first 40 minutes but ultimately we made a mistake in giving away a penalty, which was good timing for them just before half-time," he said. "We had lots of chances but our final ball wasn't good enough. In the second half, against the run of play, they managed to get a second goal. That seemed to knock us a bit and gave West Ham something to hold onto. Then, at the end, we conceded a third, which probably slightly flattered the opposition.

"The reason we lost the game was because we didn't take our chances. Between both boxes we were dominant but we didn't defend our goal well enough and we weren't ruthless enough in our finishing in their box, so we've come away really disappointed. We hit the woodwork, they cleared two or three off the line, they made some really good blocks, they hung on and the second goal gave them a lift. Then when we went searching for the equaliser we got caught out and lost the game 3-1. We were good technically, our shape was good, our movement was good but in both boxes, we got punished."

NEW DEAL FOR HARVEY

We announced this week that Harvey White has signed a new contract with the Club, which runs until 2023.

The 18-year-old central midfielder featured for the first team during our summer programme of International Champions Cup and Audi Cup fixtures.

This season, he has made 15 appearances in all competitions for our Development Squad, in addition to starting all six group stage matches in the UEFA Youth League.

He's also scored three goals in five games in the Under-18 Premier League and played twice in the FA Youth Cup.

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT... DERMI LUSALA

1. Right-back Dermi Lusala was born on 16 January, 2003, just down the road at North Middlesex Hospital. He spent his early years at Brentford before joining our Academy system where, having experimented in different playing positions, he eventually settled in his full-back role: "I started off as a striker at Brentford, then moved into midfield, then went to centre-back and eventually right-back here at Spurs in the Under-16s. I got used to it very quickly and I really enjoy it," he said.

2. Dermi attended St Ignatius College in Enfield where he excelled at athletics. He was a 1,500m champion in year 10 while he also shone in the 100m and relay races. In the classroom, he enjoyed English reading and writing, but was also keen on drama and says that if he couldn't be a footballer, he'd like to be an actor.

3. Football – and indeed Spurs – runs in the family for Dermi: "My mum and dad both used to play football in Congo – my mum was very good!" he revealed. "They both support Tottenham, especially my dad, as does my little brother Johrmi. I remember going to the old White Hart Lane stadium as a family to watch Spurs play. For some reason, though, I seem to remember I had a Manchester United kit when I was very young with my surname on the back, even though I was always a Spurs fan!"

4. Dermi likes to watch three Premier League right-backs, especially our own Serge Aurier: "Serge is top," he said. "I was lucky enough to be chosen to help the kit staff for the recent home game against Norwich and before the players went out, Serge came up to me and told me how he wanted to impact the game – he then went out and got an important assist. Elsewhere in the league, for the defensive side of the game I like to watch Aaron Wan-Bissaka at United and attacking-wise I look at Liverpool's Trent Alexander-Arnold for the way he crosses the ball, keeps possession and goes forward."

5. Dermi's first family holiday was to Congo: "For some reason, if you go on Google and type in my name, there's a picture of me in a swimming pool – that was from that holiday in Congo. It was such a good trip!" he smiled. Dermi's favourite food is spaghetti bolognese and he names comedian Kevin Hart and former boxer Floyd Mayweather Jr as famous people he'd like to meet.

Robbie Keane

ROBBIE REMEMBERS...

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH THE EVER-POPULAR ROBBIE KEANE, A PLAYER LOVED BY BOTH SETS OF FANS HERE TODAY AND WHO CARRIES FOND MEMORIES OF SPECIAL DAYS AT WOLVES AND SPURS. BY PAUL MILES.

Before joining us in 2002, before 122 goals in 306 appearances, lifting the League Cup and becoming only the 15th player in our history to reach a century of goals, before taking the mantle of the Republic of Ireland's record goalscorer and appearance maker, before all of that, for Robbie Keane, there was Wolves.

That famous 'old gold' kit will always have a special place in Robbie's heart.

It's at Molineux the Irish hero made his name as a 17-year-old back in 1997. Born in Tallaght, Dublin, 'Keano' scored twice on his debut in the Championship against Norwich City on 9 August, 1997 and went on to bag 29 goals in 87 appearances before the Premier League and Coventry City came calling in 1999.

The goals continued to flow and via Inter and Leeds United, Robbie found his home at Spurs in August, 2002.

He didn't look back, but never forgot those early days when he left Dublin for Wolverhampton, aged just 16. He remembers fondly his landlady, Josie Edwards and is still friends with Chris Evans, Wolves' former Academy boss who brought him to England.

"I've a lot to thanks Wolves for," said Robbie, now assistant manager to Jonathan Woodgate at Middlesbrough and on the FAI's coaching team. "They gave me my opportunity and started my career. I had a great time there.

"For any kid, first and foremost, you want to play, and you want to be a footballer. It just doesn't happen overnight. It had been building up for a while and I had a couple of clubs willing to give me the opportunity to come over.

"It wasn't easy, of course. I was only a kid. The first few months were difficult, leaving Ireland. It's only across the water but when you are a kid it feels a million miles away. It was something I wanted though. I wanted to be a professional football player. Wolves showed a lot of faith in me and gave me the opportunity.

"I'd just turned 17 when I made my debut againstNorwich. That was one of the reasons I went to Wolves, the opportunity to play straight away.

"Did I think the opportunity was going to come that early? No. I didn't even play a reserve game. I went straight from the youth team, trained in pre-season with the first team, went to Scotland in pre-season with them and obviously did well.

"I made my debut and scored twice with my mum and dad there watching. That was obviously a great occasion.

"Any kid's dream is to play, first and foremost, but to then score two goals in a win, that was perfect. I carried on from there…

"It was just circumstances in the end as to why I left. Wolves were in the Championship and I left to better my career. They understood that. They knew it was in my interests to play in the Premier League and that's what I did.

"Every time I went back to Molineux or scored against Wolves, I never celebrated. I remember scoring a hat-trick against them at the Lane (6 December, 2003), came off and their fans gave me a standing ovation. There are not many fans who would do that after scoring a hat-trick against them.

"That is something I'll always take with me."

Rianna Dean converts from the spot against Coventry

DERBY DAY AWAITS IN FA CUP QUARTER-FINALS

Rianna Dean scored a hat-trick in a commanding 5-0 win over Coventry United as Spurs Women secured a place in the quarter-finals of the Women's FA Cup for the first time in our history recently.

Our number nine converted two penalties in the first half after Siri Worm opened the scoring and Lucia Leon made it 4-0 after the interval.

Dean completed her hat-trick shortly before the final whistle to seal our place in the next round of the cup, where we will face Arsenal - who beat Lewes in the fifth round last Sunday - at Meadow Park on Sunday 15 March, kick-off 1pm.

Karen Hills and Juan Amoros made four changes to the team who earned a valuable draw against Everton the previous midweek as captain Jenna Schillaci, Leon, Worm and Angela Addison were introduced into the starting line-up at Butts Park Arena.

We dominated from the off and Ria Percival should have fired us ahead with a powerful header from close range, but her attempt was saved well by Sue Wood in United's goal, following a sublime ball in from former Coventry player Ashleigh Neville.

Moments later, Worm played a short corner to Gemma Davison, before curling it into the top left to give us a warranted lead in the 19th minute.

Dean doubled our advantage just under 10 minutes later after she was fouled in the box by Hayley Crackle and stepped up to fire home a well-taken penalty past Wood into the top corner.

The forward scored once again on the brink of half-time from another penalty, this placing it into the bottom left corner after Addison was clipped in the box by Maz Gauntlett.

After the break, Leon bagged our fourth of the game in the 78th minute with a tap-in at the back post following an exquisite delivery from substitute Lucy Quinn.

Quinn registered another assist 12 minutes later as Dean headed in her cross for her hat-trick and sealed a comfortable win against the Championship side to guarantee our place in the quarter-finals in two weeks' time.

Coventry United: Wood (c), Morgan, Crackle, Miles, Johnson, Gauntlett (Jhamat 59), Anderson, Hughes, Dermody (Wathan 70), Merrick, O'Brien. Substitutes (not used): Worts, Evans, Gardner, Roberts.

Spurs: Spencer, Leon, Percival (Quinn 62), Green (Peplow 46), Davison, Dean, Schillaci (c), Addison, Worm, Mitchell, Neville (Haines 62). Substitutes (not used): Morgan, Filbey, Godfrey, Sulola.

Smiles from goalscorers Siri Worm, Rianna Dean and Lucia Leon at Coventry

HILLS HAPPY WITH HISTORIC WIN

Head Coach Karen Hills expressed her delight at full-time against Coventry United, as we booked our place in the last eight of the Women's FA Cup.

"I couldn't be happier, the first time we've managed to get into the quarter-finals of the cup, I'm really proud of all the girls. They went out and executed everything we asked of them. Rianna Dean scoring a hat-trick was fantastic, Lucia Leon scoring as well, Siri Worm with another set piece and we kept a clean sheet so all in all, it was a good night's work.

"We're just pleased we've got ourselves into a fantastic position in the cup and it's a momentous moment for us."

DEAN SPOT ON AGAIN TO SINK ALBION

Rianna Dean's second-half penalty saw Spurs Women claim a narrow victory against a Brighton & Hove Albion side that had to compete for an hour with 10 players last Sunday.

Following the first-half dismissal of Lea Le Garrec for a second yellow card in the space of six minutes, we stayed patient in our bid to find a way through and ultimately got the opportunity we needed with a spot-kick after Angela Addison was brought down by Kirsty Barton.

Dean stepped up to convert her fourth penalty and sixth goal in our last four games and, aside from a good chance for Kayleigh Green, we saw out the match comfortably to secure our first away win in five in the Barclays FA Women's Super League (WSL) and move up to sixth in the table.

Head Coaches Karen Hills and Juan Amoros were without Rosalla Ayane, who missed out through suspension, and Emma Mitchell, who picked up an injury in training. Lucia Leon came in for her first WSL start, while Kit Graham featured as a second-half substitute, having missed the Everton and Coventry games through illness.

In a physically-demanding contest at the People's Pension Stadium in Crawley, Le Garrec pounced on an early loose pass from right-back Ashleigh Neville but we closed ranks to prevent her from opening the scoring, with Neville going on to play a key role in our attacking endeavours at the other end. Frequently pushing on down the right flank, she stole possession in Brighton's area but fired off-target with a left-footed shot, then sent in a dangerous cross which Dean couldn't quite convert from six yards out.

Fern Whelan's shot-on-the-turn floated across goal and wide for Brighton before the hosts were reduced to 10 players just beyond the half-hour mark when Le Garrec collected her second yellow card in short order after a clash with Josie Green.

After the break, Addison was brought down in the box and Dean sent the goalkeeper the wrong way from 12 yards to fire us into a 67th-minute lead.

Brighton refused to fade and when Barton's free-kick was guided on into the box by Victoria Williams, striker Green found herself with a great chance to equalise, but couldn't turn the ball on target. A subsequent cross from close to the byline on the right bounced off the top of the crossbar but in general we managed the remainder of the game well. Graham latched onto a miscued clearance from Walsh within 40 seconds of her introduction but fired straight at the Brighton custodian, while midfielder Green shot wide shortly afterwards as a second goal eluded us.

"It was a solid performance and one that we can be very proud of," Head Coach Amoros commented. "Brighton worked hard but I think we dominated possession. I know we could have created more chances, but the main thing is that I cannot recall any from their side. The performance is a credit to the whole team.

"We were very proud of Lucia (Leon) today on her first WSL start. She created a lot of trouble in her position and we are very happy for her because she has been with us, developing, for seven or so seasons. Karen, myself and all the girls were buzzing for her because she's worked really hard in training."

Brighton: Walsh, Barton, Kerkdijk, Le Tissier, Williams, Bowman (c), Simpkins (Natkiel 83), Whelan, Le Garrec, Nilden (Umotong 46), Green. Substitutes (not used): Fiskerstrand, Roe, Lundorf, Bennink, Jarrett.

Spurs: Spencer, Neville, Godfrey, Filbey, Worm, Percival, Green (c), Leon (Quinn 67), Davison (Peplow 87), Addison (Graham 77), Dean. Substitutes (not used): Morgan, Schillaci, Haines.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMMES IN EUROPE 2020

Following the success of the International Player Development Programmes in Europe last year, the Global Football Development team are expanding the European programmes that will be delivered in 2020. A number of Player Development Programmes will take place in several countries across Europe this year.

Our Player Development Programmes use methods developed within our Academy which allows players to demonstrate their flair and enthusiasm in every aspect of the game. Each session is themed around a specific element and is delivered by our FA and UEFA-qualified Global Football Development coaches.

Working with Cameron International Sports Academy, the first International Player Development Programme of 2020 will be delivered in Malaga, Spain, between 6-10 April. The partnership will see multiple Programmes delivered in Malaga until the end of October this year.

After introducing a new partnership with The British School in the Netherlands last year, the Global Football Development team will return to Voorschoten to deliver a Player Development Programme in May 2020.

Following a successful partnership with Star Sports Switzerland in 2018 and 2019, the Club will be offering Player Development Programmes in Vevey and St Prex in July for 9 – 15 year olds. In Norway, the Global Football Development team will return to Sunndalsøra for the third year in a row to deliver the renowned programmes. For details about each European Programme, please see the table below.

PANCAKE WORLD RECORD BROKEN AT STADIUM!

Our stadium played host to a Pancake Day spectacle on Shrove Tuesday which saw a new Guinness World Record set for the longest ever line of pancakes.

Kenwood chefs whipped up 1,135 individual pancakes in the stadium's East Quarter as they attempted to break the existing record of 110.85 metres and create the world's longest line of pancakes, measuring 130.86 metres in length.

The line was then measured and verified by adjudicators from Guinness World Records, who confirmed the achievement and marked the first world record set inside Tottenham Hotspur Stadium!

Following the successful attempt, all pancakes were immediately donated to two local causes via The Felix Project, a London-based charity which aims to tackle food waste and hunger.

According to the charity, 1.5 million adults in London struggle to afford to eat every day, while 400,000 children are at risk of missing the next meal.

Located on the Club's doorstep, Haringey Play and Bruce Grove Youth Space support young people in the Borough by providing opportunities for them to play outdoors and take part in free activities, including mentoring, cooking, music, art and dance.

Speaking after the donation, Tam Carrigan, Senior Play Worker at Haringey Play, said: "It's really special to see the kids tuck into their pancakes and enjoy food together.

"Many of our young people come from disadvantaged backgrounds, which is why donations like this mean so much. They make us all feel truly connected to the local community."

JENNA AND JESS VISIT HALF-TERM TOURNAMENT

Club captain Jenna Schillaci and forward Jessica Naz visited New River Sports Centre on White Hart Lane last week to get involved in a half-term girls' football tournament hosted by the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation.

Both Jessica and Jenna were on hand throughout the afternoon to give the girls some words of advice and motivation, demonstrate their skills and hand out prizes to the winners.

The tournament saw 18 grassroot teams from across London and beyond competing for the titles of Under-12 and Under-14 champions, with Brighton & Hove Albion in the Community and Haringey Girls Academy going on to take home the spoils in the respective age categories.

Speaking after the trophy presentation, Jenna said: "It was great to see so many girls enjoying their football and keeping active during half term.

"We've been in their shoes as young players starting out, so hopefully us being here can give them some inspiration to keep working hard."

Jessica added: "Jenna and I loved meeting all the girls and doing a few team talks. We were impressed by the skills on show!

"As players, it's important that we take the time to come down to these programmes and see the good work being done in our local community."

The event was one of many that was delivered by the Foundation in the local area during the half term break.

Alongside its regular community programmes, the Foundation put on additional free football tournaments and coaching courses during the school holiday to help young people stay active.

It also runs several year-round programmes aimed at giving women and girls more opportunities to play football, including girls' Premier League Kicks and walking football for women aged 40 and over.

For more information about how to get involved with the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, email foundation@tottenhamhotspur.com or tweet us @SpursFoundation.

What does the name Wolverhampton Wanderers stir in the memory of club historian John Fennelly? We find out.

1 TOMMY LUNN

Tommy Lunn played in goal for Wolves when they upset the odds by beating top flight Newcastle 3-1 in the 1908 FA Cup Final.

Wolves were in Division Two at the time and their opening goal was scored by the Rev Kenneth Hunt who once played less than half a game for us before it was abandoned! Our future manager Peter McWilliam appeared for the Magpies that day.

Lunn left Wolves to join us in April 1910 as we headed into a showdown match with Chelsea that would decide which club would be relegated from the First Division. We won, Lunn had the proverbial blinder and former Blues striker Percy Humphreys scored our winner.

2 JIMMY McCORMICK

Season 1934/35 was a forgettable one at White Hart Lane as we were relegated from Division One. But winger Jimmy McCormick had a decent campaign with six goals in his 28 outings – including scoring home and away against Wolves. It started well with us beating Wolves 3-1 at White Hart Lane early in the season. But the January return saw us hammered 6-2 at Molineux! Ultimately, goal average was not an issue by May as we went down as the division's bottom club.

Wolves finished 17th while Brentford and Bolton were promoted.

McCormick, nicknamed 'Boy', started out with home town club Rotherham, where his dad John had been a player in the 1890s, and joined us from Chesterfield in March 1933, making an immediate debut at Port Vale as we headed for promotion to Division One.

He played an important role as we subsequently finished third in the First Division before that 1935 nosedive. Jimmy later managed the Turkish national side.

3 GARTH CROOKS

We failed to beat Wolves in the league in season 1980/81 but won our crucial FA Cup semi-final replay against them on our way to our ultimate Wembley success.

Keith Burkinshaw's men famously did not leave London in that run – until the semi draw took us to Hillsborough. Even then, after a 2-2 draw, the replay was at Highbury! So, we weren't exactly clocking up the miles!

Our only away tie in that run took us to QPR in the third round and a brace from Crooks, who showed stunning pace, saw us defeat Wolves 3-0 to set up our final date with Manchester City.

4 STEVE SEDGLEY

Steve Sedgley was an Enfield lad whose father Gordon had played to a good non-league level.

So, we were aware of his emerging talents when he joined the local Cheshunt Youth set up. A Spurs fan, Steve was invited to train at the Lane and even played for our juniors, but it was Coventry who took him on as an apprentice.

Sedge did well at Highfield Road and was an unused substitute when the Sky Blues beat us in the 1987 FA Cup Final. After signing for Spurs in 1989 he then played in our 1991 FA Cup triumph.

He left us for Ipswich in 1994 and on to Wolves three years later.

5 VIVIAN WOODWARD

England international centre-forward Vivian Woodward scored our first ever goal in the Football League when he netted twice at home to Wolves in Division Two on the opening day of the 1908/09 season.

Spurs had been elected to the Football League at the end of the previous campaign and we immediately proved our right to be there when we marched through the division to gain instant promotion to the top flight. Wolves finished seventh.

6 HARRY MARSHALL

Harry Marshall was an inside-forward with a strong footballing pedigree after spells with Nottingham Forest, Southport, Wolves and Port Vale before transferring to Spurs in March 1932 and making an immediate debut at home to Stoke.

We drew that game 3-3, Marshall was not called on again and was released at the end of the following season.

Harry retired in 1940 to work as a miner at Linby Colliery. Sadly he died while working down the pit in 1959 at the age of 54.

7 MARK YEATES

Mark Yeates made his Spurs debut in our final game of the 2003/04 season when he created the opportunity for fellow Dubliner and former Molineux man Robbie Keane to score in our 2-0 away win.

Keane also scored a hat-trick when we defeated Wolves 5-2 at the Lane in December as newly promoted Wanderers went straight down again. We were 14th.

We had started the season with Glenn Hoddle as manager, but David Pleat then took over in a caretaker capacity in September. By the December Hoddle was Wolves boss.

Yeates had started with us as a scholar in 2001 and was a full professional within a year. But that would be his only league start for us and, after numerous loan moves, he left for Colchester in July 2007. A former Ireland 'B' and Under-21 international.

8 CLIFF JONES

Cliff Jones scored three times when we beat Wolves by an amazing 7-4 scoreline in their relegation season of 1964/65. It was 1-1 at half-time as we maintained an unbeaten home record throughout the campaign.

The Knowles brothers faced each other that afternoon – Cyril for us and Peter for Wolves – while future England international Keith Weller made his Spurs debut.

Wolves had beaten us 3-1 at Molineux in the November but would go down with Birmingham at the campaign's conclusion.

Many congratulations to Charlotte Newton and Robin O'Connell, who celebrated their seventh anniversary on 17 February and are at today's game.

NEW ADDITIONS

Welcoming young Spurs supporters

Here is newly-born Esme with her grandad Kevin, a South Stand season ticket holder. Esme's daddy is a Wolves fan, so being included in today's programme is a special moment for the family!

Poppy Mathews was born on 7 July last year and her mum Steph is attending her first game of the season this afternoon. Poppy is going to be a big Spurs fan, just like her mum, grandad and uncle!

GALLERY

Executive Members Fiona Mason, Poppy Archer and Millie Mason are pictured enjoying last month's win against Manchester City.

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

John J Pilborough, a huge Spurs fan who sadly passed away on 24 February at the age of 43. He will be deeply missed by all his family and friends.

Robert Thomas, who passed away on 9 February, aged 52. He was introduced to Spurs by his sons and loved the club ever since. He was loved by all and will be sorely missed.

Malcolm Hope, who passed away on 7 February at the age of 78. A lifelong fan, he would travel up to London from Canvey island on his own as a small boy to watch Spurs play and once had the honour of being a ball boy. He also got the opportunity to meet his favourite player, Danny Blanchflower.

Clive Colin Stanley, who passed away on 6 January, aged 77. He was a lifelong supporter who attended games for over 60 years and his favourite player was Dave Mackay. He will be sadly missed by his children Ross and Holly and all his family and friends.

We would like to extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

LOCAL HERO

PLAYER NAME:
JIMMY DIMMOCK
D.O.B: 05.12.1900
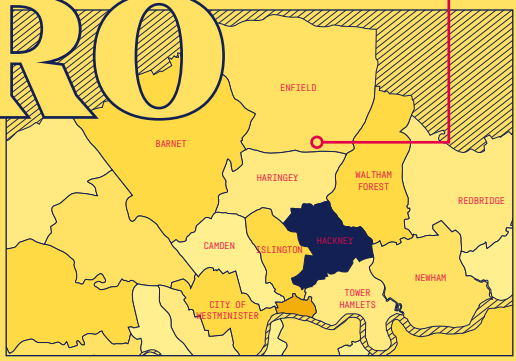
LEAGUE APPEARANCES: 400
BORN IN: EDMONTON



Looking back on players spotted by Spurs playing locally in schools' football – and who went on to star in our first team. Today, we celebrate the writing of our late, great club historian Andy Porter who composed this tribute in May 2005.

Edmonton born Jimmy Dimmock had played for his country and scored the winner in an FA Cup Final by the time he was 21 years of age.

Described by a contemporary as having complete mastery of the ball, a brilliant sense of timing and a cannonball shot with either foot, Dimmock was with Tottenham throughout the Twenties.

He still holds a unique place in our history as the only man to reach 400 League appearances and score 100 goals in our colours.

Dimmock had attended Montague Road School and turned out for Park Avenue, Gothic Works and Edmonton Ramblers when spotted by Spurs and signed on amateur forms on 3 December 1918.

He was loaned to Clapton Orient for the remainder of the season and played in their war league side before returning to sign professional forms for Spurs in May 1919.

On 30 August 1919, Jimmy made his Spurs debut in a reserve team fixture against Chelsea and two days later notched his first goal in a 6-4 London Combination win at Fulham.

His Football League career incepted at Sincil Bank, Lincoln, on 4 October 1919 in a 1-1 draw. By the end of that season he had played 31 senior games and picked up a Second Division championship medal as we returned to the top flight at the first attempt.

The 1920/21 season was undoubtably his most memorable. Jimmy would have been ever-present in our senior side had he not been selected for his international debut against Scotland on 9 April 1921, the same day that Spurs faced Bradford City in a league fixture. Alongside him were team mates Bert Bliss, Bert Smith – also making their England debuts – and Arthur Grimsdell.

Unfortunately, England lost 3-0 and it was to be another 56 years before as many as four Spurs players appeared together in the national side.

Jimmy Dimmock watches on television at home as Spurs retain the FA Cup in 1962

A fortnight later Dimmock was again under the national spotlight in the FA Cup Final against Wolverhampton Wanderers at Stamford Bridge. Despite an injury sustained after 15 minutes he continued to pose the major threat to the Wolves goal.

A scribe of the time takes up the story, early in the second half:

"The ensuing play was of a quiet character, but when this half had lasted nine minutes Tottenham took the lead, Bliss putting the ball to Dimmock, who dribbled in and shot. The ball rebounded off Woodward, but Dimmock secured possession again, and with a fine left foot shot drove the ball with great power across George into the far corner of the net. It was a great shot, and the success of Tottenham naturally aroused the spectators to a great height of enthusiasm."

At 20 years 139 days, he remains our youngest player to appear in an FA Cup Final.

With no one man making a regular claim for the left-wing berth for England it is surprising that Dimmock was overlooked until 1926 when he gained his last two caps against Wales and Belgium.

In 1928 Jimmy put his thoughts into print in 'Association Football', a book described by its publishers C. Arthur Pearson as 'A Complete Handbook to all Departments of the Game, with Rules'. Essentially a coaching manual, his introduction under the title 'How football has changed' read:

"The great difference between modern football and that of a few years ago is that the present-day game is altogether speedier. This change has been brought about principally through the alteration in the offside rule."

One wonders what he would make of the pace in the Premier League today!

Dimmock certainly enjoyed the reduction from three to two players between the attacker and goal, introduced in 1925. In his first six seasons of league football his goal tally was 34, yet his last six campaigns in our league side yielded 66 goals.

His final tally, on being released by Spurs in 1931, was 100 goals in 400 League games plus 12 in 38 FA Cup matches.

Sadly, in later life, he suffered from poor health, eventually losing both legs. Jimmy passed away at North Middlesex hospital on December 23,1972.

AWAY MATCH

Jack Rowley was born in Wolverhampton in October 1920 and started out with his hometown club when Wolves signed him in November 1935.

But it was with Manchester United that the centre-forward established his reputation when he moved to Old Trafford in 1937 and stayed there for 17 years.

He would go on to become an England international, score twice in the 1948 FA Cup Final and help United win the League title in 1952.

While on service during World War Two, Jack was posted to Northern Ireland where he 'guested' for Distillery alongside Spurs man Les Bennett. Les suggested that Jack should do the same with us if he found himself in London.

Rowley did just that and helped Spurs win the wartime Football League South title in season 1943-44 when he scored 19 goals in 18 games.

He also played as a 'guest' for Wolves and scored twice in the second leg of the 1942 Football League War Cup Final when they beat Sunderland 6-3 on aggregate.

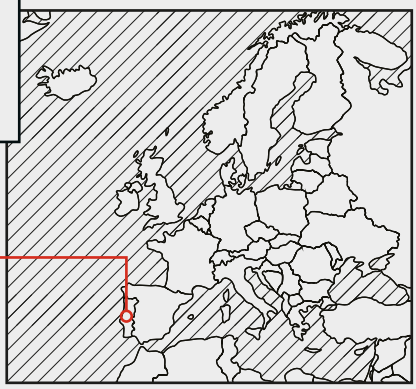
EURO ZONE



PORTUGAL

Capital: Lisbon
Language: Portuguese

Ahead of UEFA Euro 2020, Andy Greeves offers the lowdown on various nations that will be appearing at the European Championships as it celebrates its 60th anniversary. Today he takes a look at Fernando Santos' Portugal.

FORM GUIDE

Reigning European champions Portugal booked their place at UEFA Euro 2020 with a 2-0 win in Luxembourg on 17 November last year that confirmed them as runners-up in qualifying Group B behind Ukraine.

Portugal's preparations for Euro 2020 include friendly matches against Belgium and Croatia towards the end of this month, while 'Os Navegadores' (The Navigators) will also take on Slovenia and Spain prior to their opening tournament match in Budapest on 16 June.

KEY PLAYER

Five-time Ballon d'Or winner Cristiano Ronaldo captained Portugal to European glory four years ago. His three strikes at Euro 2016 – including a goal in a 2-0 victory over Wales in the semi-final – helped his country win the competition for the first time. The first of his two strikes in a Group F clash with Hungary earlier in the tournament - in a match that finished 3-3 – saw him become the first player to score in four European Championship finals.

Ronaldo has appeared in 21 matches at the finals of a European Championships to date – more than any other player. He is tied with Michel Platini as the tournament's record all-time goal scorer, with nine strikes in the finals of the competition while he has scored a record 31 goals in qualifying. The Portuguese legend is set to become the first player to appear at five European Championship finals this summer. He is currently one of 17 players, including the likes of Lothar Matthaus, Peter Schmeichel, Alessandro Del Piero and Lilian Thuram, to have played in four.

Having netted 99 times in 164 appearances for Portugal to date, Ronaldo is his country's most capped player and record, all-time goal scorer.

SPURS CONNECTION

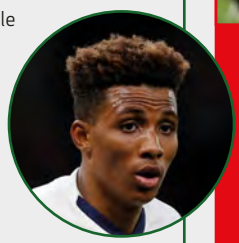
Our first foray into a continental competition came to an end as we were beaten 4-3 on aggregate by Lisbon-based side Benfica in the European Cup semi-final in 1961/62. After a 3-1 defeat at the Estadio da Luz on 21 March, 1962, a crowd of 64,448 saw us come close to completing an aggregate comeback as goals from Bobby Smith and Danny Blanchflower saw us win 2-1 in the second leg at White Hart Lane on 5 April, 1962.

We drew 2-2 on aggregate with Portuguese side Vitoria de Setubal in a UEFA Cup quarter-final tie in 1972/73. We progressed to the semi-finals on the away goals rule, by virtue of Martin Chivers' strike in our 2-1 defeat in Setubal in the second leg on 21 March, 1973, having won 1-0 in the first leg a few weeks earlier thanks to a goal from Ray Evans.

We have faced SC Braga in UEFA Cup ties during both the 1984/85 and 2006/07 seasons. A Garth Crooks hat-trick in our first round, second leg tie helped us to a 6-0 win at White Hart Lane on 3 October, 1984 and completed a 9-0 aggregate success. We beat the same opponents 6-4 on aggregate in a round of 16 tie in 2007, winning both legs 3-2.

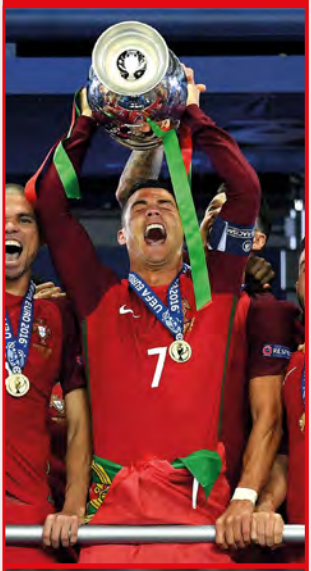
Gary Lineker scored twice as we triumphed 3-1 against FC Porto in a European Cup Winners' Cup second round, first leg tie in N17 on 23 October, 1991. A goalless draw in the second leg saw us through to a third-round meeting with Dutch side Feyenoord. More recently, we went down to a 5-3 aggregate defeat to Benfica in a Europa League round of 16 tie during the 2013/14 season.

Portuguese winger Jose Dominguez scored five goals in 58 appearances for us between 1997 and 2000 and was part of our squad that won the Football League Cup in 1999. Vila do Conde-born forward Helder Postiga netted twice in 24 matches for us during the 2003/04 season while Pedro Mendes scored once in 36 appearances in our colours between 2004 and 2006.



Ricardo Rocha featured in 18 games for us between 2007 and 2009 having arrived from Benfica while Gedson Fernandes is currently on loan with us from the Lisbon side. Our Head Coach Jose Mourinho was born in Setubal on 26 January, 1963.

EURO HISTORY



After advancing to the knockout phase as one of the best third-placed group teams at Euro 2016, Portugal beat Croatia, Poland, Wales and France to claim the Henri Delaunay Trophy for the first time.

This summer marks Portugal's eighth appearance at the finals of the European Championships. In addition to their triumph in 2016, they were semi-finalists in 1984, 2000 and 2012 and runners-up to Greece at Euro 2004 – a competition they hosted.

SUPER SUB

As part of an occasional feature, Andy Greeves takes at a look back at a match in which a substitute has made a real impact for us. Today, he remembers a goal-scoring contribution from Glenn Hoddle against Coventry City in September 1978.

Club legend Glenn Hoddle made 490 competitive first team appearances for us between 1975 and 1987, and just 12 of those came as a substitute.

Among them was his first game in our colours when he came off the bench to make his professional debut, replacing Cyril Knowles in our 2-2 draw with Norwich City at White Hart Lane on 30 August, 1975 before starting in his next 99 matches for us.

Hoddle's next substitute appearance came during our First Division match against Coventry City at the Lane on 30 September, 1978, having missed our previous three fixtures that season. Jimmy Holmes took to the pitch that afternoon wearing the number four shirt that was synonymous with Hoddle for much of his early Spurs career while Ossie Ardiles started his ninth consecutive match for us during his debut campaign in N17.

We struggled to create any chances of note in the first half against a Coventry side that came into the match in third position in the old First Division table, having won four, drawn two and lost just one of their opening seven league games that season. Seeking inspiration in the second period, then-Spurs manager Keith Burkinshaw called on Hoddle's services just before the hour mark as he replaced Gerry Armstrong as a substitute. Prior to that moment, "Spurs had never looked like scoring against City's efficient and well-organised defence," wrote Neville Foulger in his match report for the Coventry Evening Telegraph.

With 10 minutes of the match remaining, Hoddle collected a pass from John Pratt and evaded the challenges of Coventry defenders Gary Gillespie and Jim Holton before lashing a shot past Sky Blues goalkeeper Les Sealey. It was the midfielder's third goal of a season that saw him net nine times in 42 appearances in all competitions. Alas, we were unable to hold on for the two points as the visitors – sporting their infamous chocolate brown kit – equalised just four minutes later. John Beck fed the ball to Mick Coop down our left-hand side, who promptly crossed for Mick Ferguson to head home.

The 1978/79 season saw us finish 11th in the First Division in our first season back in the top flight, having been relegated in 1977. The Sky Blues finished one place above us, accruing 44 points compared to our 41. Today's opponents Wolverhampton Wanderers came 18th in the 22-team division meanwhile.

Following his substitute appearance against Coventry, Hoddle would start in his next 200 matches for us, including our FA Cup Final replay victories in 1981 and 1982. The midfielder sustained an injury in our 6-0 victory at home to Southampton on 8 September, 1982 which saw him ruled out of action for almost two months. His return saw him come on as a substitute for Garry Brooke in our 4-1 away defeat to Bayern Munich on 3 November that year in the UEFA Cup second round, second leg for what was his 300th competitive appearance in our colours.

Later that season, Hoddle scored having come on as a substitute for Terry Gibson in our 1-1 draw at Luton Town on 15 January, 1983. Further substitute appearances came in our FA Cup fifth round tie at Everton and First Division match at home to Ipswich Town during the 1982/83 campaign. He featured in six of our UEFA Cup fixtures as we won the competition in 1983/84, which included an appearance from the bench in our 2-0 triumph over Austria Vienna in a fourth round, first leg match at White Hart Lane.

Hoddle was used as a substitute in UEFA Cup matches at home to SC Braga and away to Club Brugge during the 1984/85 season, while he was also introduced as a sub in league matches against Manchester United and West Bromwich Albion that campaign. The last occasion in which Hoddle appeared as a substitute for us was in our 2-1 defeat at Norwich City on 8 November, 1986, when he came on for Chris Hughton. His final appearance in our colours, prior to a transfer to AS Monaco, was our 3-2 extra-time defeat to Coventry City in the 1987 FA Cup Final.

Hoddle scored 110 goals during his Spurs career before going on to win the Ligue 1 title with Monaco in his first season at the Stade Louis II in 1987/88. He later served as player-manager of Swindon Town and Chelsea before his appointment as England manager in 1996. Our former midfielder guided us to the 2002 Football League Cup Final during his time in charge of Spurs between 2001 and 2003 while he was manager of this afternoon's opponents, Wolverhampton Wanderers, from 2004 to 2006.

Hoddle netted eight times in 53 appearances for England between 1979 and 1988.
